

Winter 2019

Teen Session Newsletter

What's Inside?

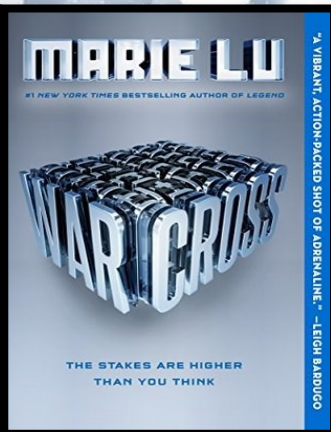

- ◇ Teen Book Club
- ◇ Hometown Christmas at APL
- ◇ Holiday Reads
- ◇ Book of the Season

Join Our Teen Book Club!

January 2020

February 2020

Join our book club at APL to discuss a YA book each month!!
Bring a snack!

- Meets the last Tuesday of each month.

See about getting the book or more info at the library or call (316) 558-3500

Winter 2019

Hometown Christmas

At the Andover Public Library

5:30pm to 8:00pm

Hometown Christmas will take place at the following locations:

Andover Public Library

City Hall

The Lodge

Activities:

Tree Lighting Ceremony with the arrival of Santa Claus

Chili Cook-off at The Lodge

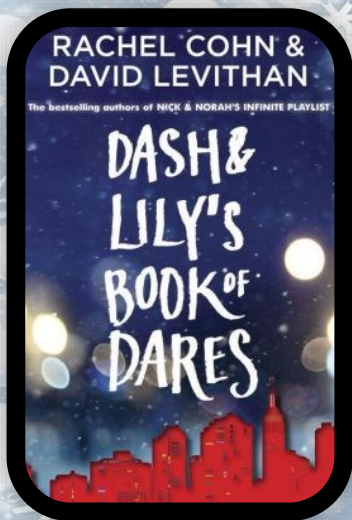

Children's Activities at Andover Public Library

Live Music at City Hall

Take Pictures with Santa at City Hall

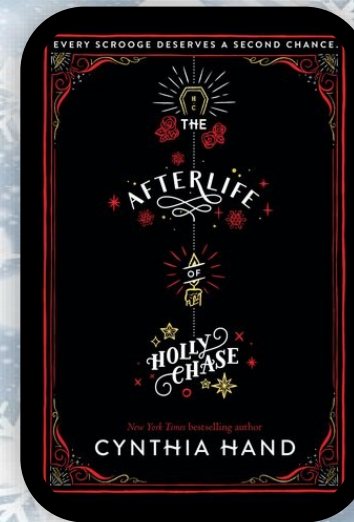

Holiday Reads

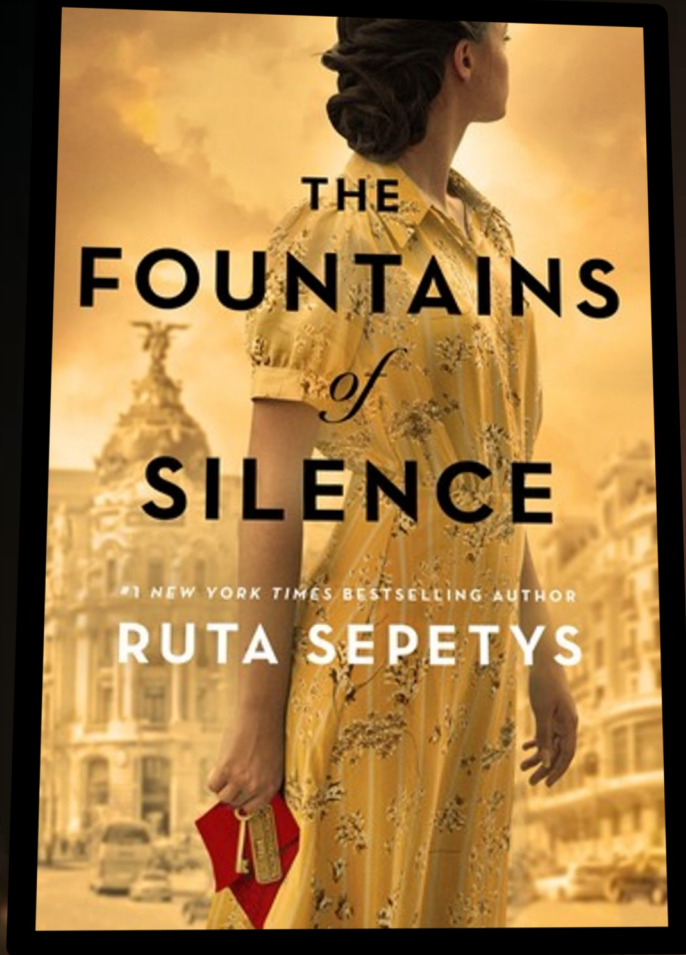

Lily left a red notebook filled with challenges at her favorite bookstore. Will Dash be the right person to accept the challenges? Will Dash and Lily connect with each other as they pass each other in New York?

Enzo and Ava Griffin is faced with a family curse on Christmas Eve. Both their grandparents has been kidnapped by the Shadow Spirits. Now, they must travel to Henderbell to rescue them. They soon discover that the King and Queen are missing which could lead to the end this new world and the human realm. What secrets will they uncover?

Holly was visited by three ghosts five years ago who warned her of her selfish ways. However, she did not change her ways and then she died. Now she is stuck being seventeen working for a top-secret organization known as Project Scrooge as the latest Ghost of Christmas Past. While saving the next grouch, Holly is unhappy when she sees that her family and friends go on living without her. But this year, will be different.

A Nominee for the 2019
Goodreads Choice Awards!

The Book of the Season

Are you looking for a book to read this winter?

Try this YA historical fiction novel!

Madrid , Spain of 1957 is facing the Spanish Civil War under the dictatorship of General Francisco Franco. Daniel comes to visit Spain with his parents hoping to connect with his mother's country through the lens of his camera. Then he meets Ana whose family's obstacles reveal the secrets of the war. Daniel's photographs leads him to question the dangers that are lurking among the shadows. He is faced with decisions to protect the one he loves from the dark side of this city .